
Renowned Cardiologist Fausto J Pinto Honored with Prestigious Award

The President of Portugal, Professor Marcelo Rebelo de Sousa, recently honored Professor Fausto Pinto, HealthManagement Editor-in-Chief of Cardiology, with the prestigious Grand Officer of Public Instruction award. This recognition acknowledges Pinto's remarkable contributions and highlights his ongoing commitment to pioneering new directions in his field, as His Excellency has pointed out.

Pinto, formerly at the helm of the World Heart Federation (WHF), has been a pivotal figure in the realm of cardiology. With a tenure spanning over three decades as Head of Cardiology at the University Hospital Santa Maria and as a Full Professor of Cardiology at Lisbon University Medical School, Pinto's contributions have been profound and far-reaching.

His illustrious career includes significant roles such as President of the European Society of Cardiology (ESC) and Dean of the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Lisbon. Pinto's expertise in cardiovascular medicine, coupled with his dedication to global health initiatives, has earned him recognition and respect on an international scale.

As a candidate for the presidency of the Portuguese Medical Association and with a surplus of accomplishments under his belt, Pinto remains committed to advancing the field of medicine and enhancing healthcare education. He attributes this honor not only to his efforts but also to the unwavering support of his family and colleagues who have accompanied him on this extraordinary journey.

Image Credit: LinkedIn

Published on : Fri, 1 Mar 2024