

SmartHealth Diagnostics Appoints Mitch Levine As President, Chief Financial Officer, and Director

SmartHealth Diagnostics, Inc, formerly Predictive Health Diagnostics Company, a leading developer of precision diagnostics that address unmet clinical needs in vascular, metabolic, and oncological diseases, today announced the appointment of Mitch Levine as President, Chief Financial Officer, and member of the Board of Directors.

SHDx CEO Matthew Nuñez commented, "Throughout his career, Mitch has provided growth capital to literally hundreds of companies as an investor, investment banker, and as CFO, helping companies achieve major milestones and establish successful foundations for growth. We believe Mitch is uniquely equipped to accelerate corporate value creation and foster excellence in business execution and performance for our Company. We are excited to welcome him as we prepare for SHDx's next stage of innovation and growth."

Mr. Levine brings a combined 40 years of strategic leadership experience in corporate life sciences, investment management, and investment banking, including extensive expertise in fundraising for growth-stage companies.

Prior to joining SmartHealth Diagnostics, Mr. Levine spent five years as CFO of Oncocyte Corp., a Nasdaq-listed molecular diagnostics company, and is currently an advisor. As CFO he led multiple successful capital raises, providing support for operational expansion and three strategic acquisitions, and spearheaded the company's listing to Nasdaq. He also was responsible for creating a critical licensing and tech transfer agreement with one of China's largest and fastest growing diagnostic labs.

Among his many career achievements, Mr. Levine is widely recognized for originating what became one of the largest alternative financing markets in the U.S., producing more than $100 billion in financings annually. In 2000, Mr. Levine founded Enable Capital Management, one of largest and most respected brands in alternative finance, providing growth capital to public and private companies through the firm's underlying investment vehicle, Enable Growth Partners, LP. Prior to founding Enable Capital, Mr. Levine was a founding member of The Shemano Group, a San Francisco-based investment bank focused on the capital needs of technology and life science companies.

In his early career, Mr. Levine held roles of progressive responsibility with Bear Stearns and Lehman Brothers. He received his BA from the University of California, Davis.
